CEO MESSAGE

Malik Wajid Ali

Commander paints Industries was established in 2013 with a clear mission to offer customers exceptional value by providing top-quality international standard products at affordable prices. Our journey has been a relentless pursuit of turning this vision into reality, delivering the most innovative and long-lasting coating systems for residential, commercial, and industrial needs. Our dedicated quality control department work tirelessly to ensure that our production adheres to rigorous international quality standards. Our research and development (R&D) team, consisting of qualified experts and highly skilled technicians, continuously works to enhance our existing products, explore emerging technologies, and develop new ideas to stay in sync with the latest trends and innovations. Commander Paints management systems have earned certification from renowned international organizations.

I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to the entire Commander Paints team, our valued business partners and loyal customers who have consistently supported and placed trust in us throughout our history. I firmly believe that, together we will continue to carry on this legacy of trust, quality, innovation and unwavering commitment in the days that lie ahead.

Vision

Commander Paints envisions a future where our innovative paint and coating solutions empower individuals to transform spaces, inspire creativity, and protect what matters most. We are committed to sustainability and environmental responsibilities, offering eco-friendly products that support a greener planet. With a strong customer – centric approach, we aim to be the trusted partner on every painting journey, providing expert guidance and unwavering quality.

MISSION

Our mission is to revolutionize the paint industries by making high-quality products accessible to everyone. We are committed to delivering excellence in every can of paint we produce, ensuring that our customers receive the best value for their investment. At Commander Paints, quality and affordability go hand in hand, and we are driven to continuously innovate and exceed expectations in the world of paints.
